

Bishop Jakes Opens Media Credentialing Process: 2016 International Pastors & Leadership Conference—DALLAS, March 17, 2016

The International Pastors and Leadership Conference, a unique training event April 21 – 23 that hosts thousands of cross-denominational and cross-cultural faith leaders and church administrators with the goal of helping to transform their ministries, has opened the media credentialing process for all media who want to attend and cover the events. All members of the media—reporters, photographers, videographers and crew—are required to have and display credentials in order to cover events within the conference.

To register for credentials, media must complete the form in full. Media will be notified via email if they are approved or declined for credentials. Information regarding where to pick up credentials, parking, facility access, interviews and other details will be sent once credentials have been approved. For media interview requests or questions, please call 770.813.0000 or email pottershous@demoss.com.

Hosted by Bishop T.D. Jakes for more than 16 years, the conference will allow established and aspiring faith leaders to learn from some of the world's most knowledgeable leaders how to grow, develop and expand their influence and impact. Attendees can expect exposure to cutting-edge practices and resources during breakout sessions that address many areas of church administration including worship, technology, business, leadership, ministry and direction.
