

T.D. Jakes Presents: 'The Light,' An Easter Production—DALLAS, April 10, 2020

SPECIAL PRODUCTION RETELLS RESURRECTION STORY THROUGH VARIOUS MUSIC GENRES

In the midst of worldwide hardship, The Potter's House will host its first digital-only Easter celebration to bring encouragement to millions around the world. A special Easter production titled The Light will be streamed online, broadcast on BET and distributed audibly through the iHeart Radio app.

While Easter in quarantine may feel alienating, global spiritual leader Bishop T.D. Jakes advocates that physical distancing requirements are not just a test in how connected we are to one another, but how deeply connected we are to God. Jakes reminds us that Easter, in its beginning, did not start with a crowd, and attendance numbers should not affect the value of the moment.

"The first Easter service wasn't crowded, and it didn't lose its significance for the lack of a crowd. There were few people around the tomb," said Jakes. "Celebrating Easter in our homes with our families, you can still have a memorable time together with your family around you and have a spiritual moment that's intimate between you and the people you love."

The Potter's House Arts and Music Ministry, a Grammy Award-winning group, will tell the story of Jesus Christ from the book of John's perspective—centered around how the light of Christ came into the world to dispel darkness. From hip-hop, to presentations by children's dance companies, to poetry and sometimes comical recitations, The Light aims to bring hope and strength to a world navigating challenging times.
